We have handled headline rarities, modest accumulations, and thousands of coins, tokens, medals, and miscellany that fall in between.

CONSIDER US FOR INDIVIDUAL COINS TO FULL COLLECTIONS — PURCHASE OR CONSIGNMENT

"Ars longa, vita brevis" ("Art is long, life is short"). Wikipedia notes that Hippocrates first said it.

Rephrasing, for those of us whose enthusiasms include numismatics, "Nummorum vita longa, nobis vita brevis," or "Coins live long, for us life is short."

When you move your coins on, we hope you will let us help the process by consignment or sale, whether individual coins, substantial collections, or most anything in between.

It has been a bit over 50 years since Marnie and I first published a print catalog. Since then, my collecting time frame is measured in weeks or months. I had to learn to carefully acquire, enjoy briefly, and then let go in order to have a business.

In that time, we (initially, Marnie and I, and over the past decade, Lief too) have handled many coins of special note and value but also thousands of lesser coins that had their own appeal and notable place in a collection.

Whether you are considering moving your own collection on, or if you are an heir to someone else's collection, please consider us. We know the material. We have over a half century of doing business. And we will treat you and your material with the utmost care.

If it is a few pieces as you refocus or have replaced with something else, we are interested in individual bits and pieces as well.

Our handling of your coins is careful. Our cataloging is thoughtful, well researched, and reflects our understanding of the coins as well as both the context in which they were first issued and their place in modern collections.

We have a client base that goes well back into the last century, and respect for the coins and those who collect them such that we pay close attention to detail. And we publish every sale in print as well as online. This way, those who favor print in hand over digital presentations are also included. And those who see things better when given two different mediums to view are doubly satisfied.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Terms of this auction (Bidding constitutes acceptance of these terms)

1. Website: Use of our website (www.davcoin.com) is dependent on acceptance of these terms. We reserve the right to revoke any bids and registrations, restrict access, and modify or disable the site or any of its features, including any specific auction or web store lot(s), at our discretion. We also do not make any guarantees regarding accessibility, accuracy, or security of this website with regard to registration and bidding. However, connections to this website are encrypted via SSL, and any payments processed through this website are handled on a separate server by a secure third party payment processor, in compliance with PCI data security standards.
2. Bidders and Registration: Once placed, all bids are final. Lots will be sold to the highest bidder. Bidders personally guarantee that they will pay for their winning bids. If you are a new bidder in our sales, please provide numismatic credit references or include a 25%-of-total-bids deposit with your bids. If bidding by internet, please register and provide the requested information. Client data is kept confidential; we do not share our mailing list or client information unless authorized. In addition to internet bidding, you may bid by mailing the bid sheet included with each catalog, or by email, fax, or telephone. If you choose to telephone your bids, we appreciate a written follow-up. Our practice is to always read back telephone bids and ask for confirmation. So far, we have had no problems with this approach. If you have special instructions such as limits on total expenditures, please talk with us.

   We will always respond to emails within one business day during auctions! If you do not get a reply, we did not get your email. Try again!
3. Bid Processing: Bidding through our website will allow instant feedback of the success of any bid. We will enter bids that come in by any of the non-website methods listed above as soon as possible during normal business hours, Monday to Friday, 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. Central Time. On the closing day of an auction the office will open at 8:00 A.M. Central Time. Bids that come from email, telephone, fax or bid sheet will not usually be posted outside of office hours, so any internet feedback you get outside of regular office hours may not reflect this other bidding. We recognize that many people prefer the phone-fax-email-personal approach to bidding. We will accept bids submitted in this fashion until 9:00 A.M. Central Time on the day of the sale. There is NO extra charge for bids submitted by mail, telephone, email, or fax.
4. Bidding Restrictions: Please note, we reserve the right to determine opening prices, advances, acceptability of bids and bidding registrations, to bid on our own account, or to withdraw any lot. In case of dispute, we reserve the right to reopen the lot. Bids below the opening amount, typically 80% of the estimate, will not be accepted for online bidding. However, we have always been willing to consider bids below the opening level, or even below reserves, after the sale closes on a case-by-case basis. We work closely with consignors in establishing price levels, reserve levels, and asking prices for lots we offer in an aftersale. Our general consignment terms allow an 80% of estimate level for the consignor so that any coin not reaching this level can be claimed back by the consignor with no charge.
5. Lot Closing: For bidders online, lots will be closing every 40 seconds unless a bid is placed during that last 40 seconds. In that case, the bidding window will reset to 40 seconds. Lots will close sequentially, not simultaneously, meaning that no subsequent lots will begin to close until the current lot is closed. Allan, Marnie, and Lief will be available by telephone during most office hours but particularly during the week the sale closes. Keep in mind that last minute calls may not get through. We will attempt to call back if you leave your number. Allan has found in bidding online in other sales that establishing a reasonably strong limit usually brings success and frequently at less than his maximum.

   In general, bid strongly on lots you particularly want. Your final price will be one advance beyond the next highest bid. Also please note, we do NOT charge a buyer's fee, so the price you win the lot for will be the price you pay, plus any charges for shipping or payments made with a credit card (see 7. Payments and Invoicing).
6. Estimates: We have estimated conservatively, assigning values that we believe reflect the moderate end of current price ranges. Some lots have reserves. In no case is a reserve higher than the estimate. We will not enter bids for less than the opening of the lot (typically 80% of the estimate), though we will consider them at the end of the sale for unsold lots.
7. Payment and Invoicing: THERE IS NO BUYER'S FEE! Please bid in US dollars. Payment should be in US dollars or British pounds by check, money order, wire, or direct deposit into our Barclay's sterling account (details provided to all United Kingdom buyers and to others on request). We will determine the pound rate at the time of invoicing based on reported rates. We also accept MasterCard and Visa, both over the phone and through our website. However, following the practice of other firms who find, as have we, that collections and fees add to the overhead of these sales, we will add a 3% administration charge to all credit card invoices (pursuant to Minnesota Statute 325G.051) and to invoices unpaid after 30 days. We will follow the billing instructions you note on your bid sheet or at the time you bid. We can work out a time payment schedule if that is necessary—please ask about this option before bidding.

   If you are paying in British pounds, the rate used will be based on the effective exchange rate, £ to $, at the time of billing. Bids must be placed and will be processed in US dollars. We will invoice in both US dollars and British pounds for any client who requests it. Sterling payments will be made directly to our sterling account.
8. Payment and Delivery of Lots: Invoices will be sent to online bidders by email soon after the sale, and by regular U.S. mail to people for whom we have no email address, or who bid via mail, phone, or fax. Payment is due on receipt of invoice. Packing and shipping costs will be added to all invoices. U.S. buyers will receive lots by U.S. Priority or Express mail, fully insured. Shipments outside the United States (including to Canada) are sent insured by U.S. Priority Mail International, FedEx, or DHL. Buyers outside the United States should provide any special shipping instructions. All shipments outside the United States are sent at the buyer's risk but we make strong efforts to get your items to you. Packages valued over $50,000 will require special arrangements which we will make with you after the sale. We carry insurance on material we mail out of the United States and will seek reimbursement for lost or damaged items. In two decades of running these sales, we have yet to have a problem with shipping we could not resolve though there is a short list of countries (non-Euro zone) to which we will not ship.
9. Authenticity: This is an auction sale, not an approval sale. All lots are guaranteed to be genuine and as presented online. Any claims, other than claims of authenticity, must be made within three days of receipt of lots. N.B. Attribution and condition are the opinion of the cataloger and no warranty is expressed or implied. Conflicting opinions about grade by grading services do not constitute a valid basis for return. Our experience is that the U.S. grading services typically do not understand the grading of coins made with extensive hand work. Authenticity claims must be supported by the judgment of recognized professionals or services such as that provided by the I.A.P.N. (In 2008 we returned an electrotype of a Cromwell crown that was slabbed as "genuine" by NGC.) In any event, our maximum liability for any item or dispute is limited to the actual amount paid for the item.
10. Title does not pass until items are paid for in full.
11. Lots sent to Minnesota addresses will have State Sales Tax (7.125%, or the recipient's local rate) added to the invoice unless you have provided a Minnesota resale number.
12. While these terms are current, they are subject to change at any time. The version posted on our website (davcoin.com/terms) will always be the most current version, and in cases of conflict supersedes any version printed elsewhere. Bidding or using our website after we have revised the Terms of Use constitutes acceptance of the revisions, and you will be bound by the revised Terms of Use.
13. There is an informality about these terms that is based on our belief that pages of fine print can never cover every eventuality and that in the final analysis, rules of reason and decency must prevail. Most of the people who take part in our sales have done business with us in the past and we have been able to work out any issues that come up in a friendly and equitable manner. We look forward to making our current and future auction sales a pleasant and enjoyable experience for you and for us.

With NO BUYER'S FEE in this sale you can bid an actual price to pay.

Opening Thoughts

E-Auction 49 opens with gold coins—some where the values are numismatically based and a larger group whose numismatic cost premium has been practically eclipsed by the recent jumps in the value of gold.

The best numismatic piece in this sale is a choice "sword and scepter" Scottish piece of James VI (Lot 7 from the Leland Scott collection), a particularly choice example of an issue that often shows up with problems. This example is well struck, well centered on a lustrous flan free of clips, blunders, bends or any of the problems that frequently appear on this issue.

An historic medieval French Royal d'or at an affordable price, an attractive half-guinea of George III that would look better out of the slab, and some attractive US gold type coins (including an attractive $3 gold piece) all merit much more than just the bullion value.

The other gold coins—currency issues of the late 19th and early 20th centuries merit a premium as well. The opening prices for these pieces are a few points above melt at the time the catalog was assembled. Gold went over $2400 an ounce for the first time in its history and it got there in a hurry. As I write this, it has settled back to $2380/Toz. I used $2350 for establishing an opening for the coins in this group and kept the premium small. The AGW (actual gold weight) has already been established by the governments that issued the piece in the first place so selling will not require assay costs.

Ancient coins that are appealing but in lesser grades and values fill much of the ancient coin section of the sale. Historic significance, important design elements, geographic importance—all these are present. Most serious collections include material like this, but headline and featured cover coins are where the prices are highest. This auction provides opportunity—it takes surprisingly little to buy fascinating pieces of ancient history.

Much the same can be said for the later coins in the sale. There is a small consignment of coins with dates issued before 1500. That is a rare enough category that a single reference book, Robert Levinson's 2007 publication, The Early Dated Coins of Europe 1234-1500, is a single volume that covers the series well. Most of the coins are rare but this is an affordable group of good material.

The British section is relatively brief with the English coins from Leland Scott and a substantial number of lots of Scottish coins filling the section. His Scottish and Tudor era interests led him to acquire several pieces from the reigns of Elizabeth I and James I (VI).

The British trade token section is "different" this time. There are some serious and desirable rarities here but many of the tokens are "lightly used." There has been such an emphasis on high condition tokens that pleasing and attractive pieces with wear are not often offered. The prices are accordingly low. The large lots each include at least one one scarcer or rarer piece in the groups offering eight pieces at a low unit cost.

The world coin section is brief but does include a mix of world issues that range from China to Latin America to Europe.

We finish the sale with some interesting United States material. The section opens with some attractive type coins including an appealing three-legged buffalo and two beautiful Standing Liberty quarters. The silver dollar section is a representation of United States silver dollars beginning with a visually appealing 1799 dollar and then examples of each of the main issues (the trade dollar has a chop-mark which gives it a double meaning) down to the Peace dollar in the 20th century and a group of modern Presidential medals in MS69 and MS70 holders. Commemorative half dollars and Civil War storecards finish the section.

The sale ends with books from two collections. The Leland Scott volumes include a green cloth set of Burns, the essential 19th century work on the series. The section continues with antiquarian books on Scottish coins, including a dramatic and rare volume, seldom offered—the massive Anderson volume, Diplomata et Numismata Scotiæ, published in 1738 and featuring multiple pages of charters and documents, many as large fold-out sheets. Concluding the section are a few books on tokens, including one of the cloth-bound examples of D&H we issued.

As usual, it has been an adventure to put together an auction. We hope you enjoy this offering and find some things to add to your collection.

Thank you for your interest.

Karayotov I 37-78. SNG Stancomb 219-222. Near Extremely Fine; beautifully toned, sharply struck, and well centered, an excellent example of an iconic Greek symbol. $250

The iconic Corinthian helmet with its distinctive nose guard, cheek pieces, and neck guard, protected the head and face of formidable Greek hoplites and wealthy warriors alike on battlefields from the 8th to 4th centuries B.C. With decorations and embellishments on their helmets, warriors heralded their status and wealth. The Corinthian helmet's historical importance echoes through Homer's Illiad in his heroic tales of the Trojan War. Characteristics like the small eye openings restricted visibility however and over the centuries the Corinthian helmet evolved into styles like the open-faced Attic helmet which provided warriors greater comfort and visibility.

Ex Harlan Berk.

In Greek mythology Athena is one of the twelve deities on Mount Olympus and the daughter of Zeus. Known as the goddess of wisdom, courage, warfare, strategy, and crafts, Athena is renowned for her strategic and intellectual abilities. Protector of heroes, Athena often appears in starring roles in the epic tales of ancient Greece. The magnificent Parthenon, one of the most iconic examples of ancient Greek architecture, was built in Athens as a tribute to their patron goddess. Associated with the concept of a civilized society and the pursuit of knowledge, Athena is important far beyond ancient Greece, as she inspired many aspects of Western culture and philosophy. This attractive coin is a fitting representation of this most important of classical personages, and modestly priced for the excellent quality.

In their study "Constantine's Dafne Coinage at Constantinople" (1992), the authors R. S. Speck and Stephen M. Huston quote John McGregor's article "Constantiniana Dafne–a different point of view" (SAN 1984): "McGregor set out the religious significance of this reverse type–portraying Constantine as Dafne, turning away from the symbols of the pagan religion (Apollo and Sol) toward the palm, symbol of Christianity. It is the first obviously Christian coinage design ever issued at a Roman mint. Its significance at this mint at this time can hardly be misinterpreted–Constantine is announcing to his new city that it is to be a Christian city. The message is local and specific, and it is the only message he presents on the coinage during the entire period of its construction as the new Christian capitol."

The shillings from the end of Elizabeth's reign often reflect haphazard manufacture; there also seems to have been limited incentive to save them–most show extensive wear. All Elizabeth hammered coins from the final year of her reign with the i.m. "2" are far scarcer than examples from the preceding year, "1" i.m.

294 Merchant Token. Copper (5 value). 2.3 gm. 20 mm. Schuetzen Park. Washington D.C. Very Fine. $30

Quite popular with the German-American community, Schuetzen Parks were similar to country clubs, but with marksmanship featured rather than golf. Schuetzen rifles were single shot rifles meant for sport and competition shooting, and could be quite ornate. This location in Washington D.C. was popular with politicians and visiting dignitaries. It was founded after the Civil War by a German-American community group called Schuetzen Verein, and closed in 1891 when the area was developed into the neighborhood of Park View.

304 A celebration of Scotland and the printing press: Anderson, Jacobus. (Scottish historiographer, 1662-1728). Diplomata et Numismata Scotiæ. Published in Edinburgh in 1739. Large folio (11 by 18 inches, several hundred pages with complex woodcuts, pull-out sheets with charters and other documents, a lengthy Preface in Latin and some of the earliest images of Scottish coins--woodcuts. Ex Libris Peter Seaby. Generally a Fine and well preserved copy with minor dampstaining on the upper left (recto) portion of earlier sheets. Half leather binding with generally clean marbled boards though there is a small area of a light, transparent stain that is not prominent at first glance. $300
The Leland Scott Collection.

305 SCOTLAND. Three useful modern publications (all smaller octavo):
•Bateson, J. Coinage in Scotland. Spink. London. 1997. 166 pages plus Index, photographs in text. Blue cloth, title on spine, with dust jacket. Accessible, well written and comprehensive—arguably the best basic reference available as an overview of the Scottish series. As new though slight scuff on the top of the spine section of the dust jacket.
•Robertson, J. A Handbook of the Coinage of Scotland. Argonaut. Chicago. 1968. A reprint of the 1878 edition published in London. 139 pages. Introduction followed by detailed descriptions, some with line drawings, of Scottish coin issues. Fine copy with very slight indications of use.
•Richardson, A. Scottish Coins. A new edition of the Catalogue of Scottish Coins in the National Museum of Antiquities, Edinburgh. First published in 1901. Reprint in 1977. 397 pages of coin description plus 12 photographic plates. Blue cloth binding with gold-stamped coin images on front cover. Includes a 14 page fold-out printed price list (£s) dated Dec. 1977. Fine copy with very slight indications of use.
The Leland Scott Collection. $75

306 Brown, L. British Historical Medals, Volume I The Accession of George III to the Death of William IV. Seaby. 1980. Octavo. 468 pages including index. Blue cloth with gold-stamped letters on spine. Dust jacket. Medals listed in date order, illustrated and described in the text. Fine copy. $85

307 Burns, E. The Coinage of Scotland Illustrated from the Cabinet of Thomas Coats and Other Collections. Three volumes. I. David I. A.D. 1224 to Robert III. A.D. 1406. (365 pages). II. James I. 1406 to Anne. 1707. 556 pages including Index. III. Plates and descriptions of the figures. 78 plates of collotype (continuous gray scale) images. Still the standard reference for Scottish coinage. Quarto. Usual binding, green cloth with title on a red leather label on the spine. Edinburgh, 1887, Very Good copy. Contents generally fresh and fine, interleave sheets in the plates volume generally intact. Bindings fully fastened. Corners of covers a bit bent and a few wrinkles and minor discoloration on the covers. The set shows that it has been well used but also cared for. $150
The Leland Scott Collection.

308 Dalton and Hamer. The Provincial Token Coinage of the 18th Century. Davisson reprint. 2004. 567 pages including Index. Includes "Update materials for the 2004 printing" in a sleeve at the back. Green cloth with gold-stamped binding. The standard reference, now out of print. Fine copy. $125

309 deCardonnel, A. Numismata Scotiæ or a series on the Scottish Coinage from the reign of WIlliam the Lion to the Union Edinbiurgh.1786. 155 pages with woodcut plates interspersed in text, plus a 33 page Appendix. Quarto. Full leather binding with original boards but spine with a red leather title tag and binding modern. An important early study of the series. Very Good copy with only a light browning of the pages. The original boards are scuffed but intact (i.e. not worn through) around the edges but the corners have been straightened; all in all a book that has been cared for and conserved with many bold and charming depictions of the coins. $100
The Leland Scott Collection.

310 The standard reference for early U.S. medals: Julian, R. W. Medals of the United States Mint. The First Century, 1792-1892. Published by the Token and Medal Society. 1977. Octavo. Brown cloth, gold-stamped title on spine, embossed image of George Washington on front cover. 424 pages including indexes. Large photographs of medals and descriptions. Fresh and fine contents; covers slightly marked. $85

311 Lindsay, J. A view of the Coinage of Scotland with Copious Tables, Lists, Descriptions and Extracts from Acts of Parliament. Cork. MDCCCXLV (1845). Initial publication, 287 pages plus Index and Errata. Plus 18 pages of hand-colored lithograph plates with gold issues colored gold. Followed by Lindsay's Supplement. Published in 1859, 64 pages plus Indexes and Errata and 3 plates. Also bound in, Lindsay's Second Supplement published in 1868, 42 pages of text and two plates of images. Octavo, rebound, half leather with brown buckram. The "groundwork" reference on Scotland's coinage (Robertson's observation), it is primarily of historical interest but occasionally still is of use. (For example, some of the images of the earliest Scottish coinage are not available in Burns or other references.) This volume also includes both of Lindsay's supplements, not always the case with copies of their work. Generally Fine and fresh though some foxing of some of the plates.
